Programme of
TRADE PROMOTIONS
1971-73

The Mayor of New York, John V. Lindsay (centre) was able to take away a personal memento from the New York Boat Show (January 23-31). It was a carved figurehead of himself, made by Mr. Jack Whitehead of Cowes, Isle of Wight.

If you send your cargo to Jo'burg via Tel Aviv, it'll arrive in time for first Customs clearance.

El Al now has two flights a week to Jo'burg. One on Tuesday and one on Thursday.

And they both have the same point in their favour: Cargo leaves London 15.05, arrives Jo'burg 09.20.

Need we say more?

Programme of TRADE PROMOTIONS, 1971-73

This Programme of Trade Promotions is published as a supplement to Trade and Industry in March, July and November; amendments and additions are given in the first issue of each interim month.

Section I lists overseas trade promotions over the next two years for which DTI support is already being planned, or is under consideration. The information is necessarily brief, but further details can be obtained from the trade association or from the officer named against the event. (Tel. 01-248 5757). The date shown in brackets after the officer's name and telephone extension number indicates the closing date for applications for support. Where no date is shown, the closing date has not yet been fixed.

Section II (Europe) and Section III (outside Europe) list a number of regular overseas trade fairs, some of which are also included in Section I. Section IV lists some United Kingdom trade fairs.

INDEX INQUIRIES

Inquiries about the detailed contents of the JOURNAL (dates on which particular articles, etc., were published) should for convenience be made to the Board of Trade Library (01-222 7877, Ext. 3038) who compile the half-yearly index to the Journal.

How the Department of Trade and Industry can help you to promote your goods overseas

In 1970 the Department of Trade and Industry provided practical help to some 6,000 British firms to exhibit at some 284 trade fairs in 37 different countries: to three British Shopping Weeks; and to 57 store promotions.

The Department of Trade and Industry helps British firms to promote their goods overseas in the following ways.

JOINT VENTURES

Under its Joint Venture Scheme the Department of Trade and Industry provides free space and a shell stand for each firm taking part in a group display sponsored by a trade association or other non profit-making body at an overseas trade fair. In addition, the Department pays up to half the cost of translating firms' sales literature for distribution at the event and, in the case of joint ventures held outside Western Europe, half the return tourist air fares (75 per cent for events in California) of two representatives from each firm manning their stand for the duration of the event and half the freight charges for returning unsold goods exhibited at the event.

BRITISH PAVILIONS

At some overseas trade fairs, usually those where participation is organized on a national basis, the Department organizes British Pavilions. Space and shell stands are provided to participating firms at attractive rates. Firms taking space in a British Pavilion are also eligible for assistance similar to that given under the Joint Venture Scheme towards the costs of translating sales literature, of representatives' travel (provided the event is held outside Western Europe) and of returning unsold exhibits.

INFORMATION STANDS

At the more important trade fairs, especially in Western Europe, the Department provides an official Information Stand staffed by Diplomatic Service Commercial Officers. Apart from dealing with commercial inquiries, these Information Stands serve as a focal point for British firms exhibiting at the event either directly or through local agents.

BRITISH WEEKS

British Weeks are organized and financed by the Department of Trade and Industry in conjunction with the appropriate area organization of the British National Export Council. They are major promotions of British consumer and consumer durable goods at the point of sale in a selected city overseas. The aim is to develop sales direct to customers through every suitable shop or other retail outlet in a selected area of a chosen city. Capital equipment manufacturers also take advantage of the favourable atmosphere created during these events.

BRITISH SHOPPING WEEKS

These are organized by local authorities or Chambers of Commerce overseas with the help of Diplomatic Service Commercial Officers. The Department of Trade and Industry may provide display material, arrange supporting events and may help individual stores to arrange special features.

STORE PROMOTIONS

Promotions of British goods involving a substantial volume of new buying are frequently put on by overseas department stores. The Department of Trade and Industry assists the store by providing display material and by arranging for special supporting features to be sent out either wholly or partly at the store's expense.

Just how important is a visit to Hanover?

important enough, it seems, since the number of visitors and the average time they spend in Hanover increases year by year. A 4-day business trip to the Hanover Fair is now the average. What is the explanation for this constantly growing interest? There are many reasons. Hanover offers the latest exhibition goods and represents a multitude of the most varied trade fairs within a fair. But, most important of all, it gives the visitor the opportunity to make contacts and gain information on a world-wide basis.

If you wish to invest in success: Hanover Fair.
